

Instructions

Requestors should complete Sections I & III and submit this form with the "Request to Fill Vacancy" form.

Section I. – Job Details

Job Title:	Assistant Professor of Biology	Hourly/Salary:	Salary
Department Area:	Natural Science Division	Classification:	Non-Exempt
Location:	Campbellsville Campus	Travel Required:	No
Reports to:	Chair of Natural Science	Position Type:	Full-Time
Position Fill Date:	August 15, 2021

External Posting URL – www.campbellsville.edu

Internal Posting – Human Resources Job Board

Section II. – Application Submission Information

FAX (270) 789-5180 Subject Line: Assistant Professor of Biology Attention: Jason Lawson	EMAIL jobs@campbellsville.edu Subject Line: Assistant Professor of Biology
ONLINE Click Link Below APPLY HERE!	MAIL Director of Human Resources Campbellsville University 1 University Drive, UPO 944 Campbellsville, KY 42718

Section III. – Job Description

Job Summary:

Seeking a broadly trained biologist to teach Human Anatomy and Physiology and a variety of biology courses for majors. Earned doctorate or ABD and teaching experience is preferred, but a master's degree and appropriate experience may be considered. Primary responsibilities will be teaching, with some mentoring of student research, academic advising, and committee assignments. This is a tenure-track position at the assistant professor level.

Job Responsibilities:

- Teach Human Anatomy and Physiology,
- Teach a variety of biology courses for majors,
- Teaching is the primary responsibility,
- Mentoring of student research is a plus,
- Some academic advising and committee assignments.

Skills/Qualifications:

- Broad training as a biologist,
- Earned doctorate or ABD preferred,
- A master's degree and teaching experience may be considered,
- Some prior college teaching experience preferred,
- Ability to mentor student research a plus,
- Willingness to contribute to the division.